

Plans Made For Christmas Break

...HART-Things done dur
 Christmas break:
 Jones: Stay home, go
 work, and party, take Lynda.
 ...: Visiting relatives in Wisconsin, snow-mobiling, going to Corunna school January 2, 1980.
 Barber: Go to the
 every night after work, go to the cabin up
 with a friend, visit relatives.
 Chesney: Snowmobiling, visiting relatives, go to a few parties, planing a big Christmas party.
 Gulick: Party, going out in the woods,
 from December 26 to January Forrest: Working,
 partying New Year's Eve, go to basketball practice.
 Burnham: Working,
 visiting friends, partying,
 playing with her dolls,
 playing in the snow.
 Curtis: Going to Flori
 maybe, if not partying
 every night.
 Sparkes: Staying home
 don't really know.
 Woodend: Partying, snowmobiling, going shopping, working, dating, driving around, and being with friends.
 Fedewa: Snowmobiling, driving around, dating and sitting home.
 Eifert: Working, getting caught up on odd jobs, working on the car, and generally messing around.
 Curtis: Writing out senior pictures, Christmas shopping, spending time with Skip (Peter), looking for the New Year, enjoying the snow, skating, sledding Gregg Carpenter: Rabbit hunting, sleeping in, eating all the time, going to the Bus Stop.

Mike Porter: Remodeling the downstairs, going to a few parties, getting car liscence.
 Mike Nickols: Rabbit hunting, sleeping in a lot, laying in the snow, snowmobiling, sledding, eating a lot Steve Wickham: Eat, sleep, play basketball, go out to see Becky.
 Kim Smith: Going to New York with her family, Christmas shopping, visit with her grandma Smith.
 Gert: Having her whole family for Christmas December 23, May go to Detroit for a couple of days, the rest of the time relax.
 Sally Scott: Staying home, may babysit, go to a few parties, she doesn't exactly know.
 Linna Washburn: Going to her mother's house in Lansing, performing for two Christmas parties, visiting relatives, Christmas shopping, getting caught up on things that need to be done Angie Stahl: Christmas shopping, looking for a Christmas tree, cleaning house, getting caught up on the T.V. programs.
 Mrs. Barnes: Going to spend time with her grandchild, do some skiing, and drive around in her new car Claire Tousley: Staying with her grandparents, doing a lot of Christmas shopping, making a lot of thing for Christmas gifts, bowling, going to parties, getting together with friends.
 Westley Baker: Sleeping, working on his car, going to work, doing a lot of Christmas shopping.
 Mark Mahoney: Getting
 caught up on some school work, messing around, build ing a snowman.

Tina Rowley: Doing school work, partying, wishing I had some money.
 Tammy Beatty: Partying, doing housework, visiting friends, & relatives.
 Lynda Loomis: Partying, eating, sleeping, spending time with my family, spending time with Dee.
 Mrs. VanVliet: Skiing, going to Milwaukee, eating too much, spend some time reading, spend some time with brothers and sisters.

The Staff of the Informer Wishes
 You a Very Merry
 Christmas